EXHIBITOR KIT

TRADESHOW RULES & REGULATIONS

- » Sound equipment must be operated so as not to disturb other exhibitors.
- » Maryland REALTORS® reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to order the removal of any exhibit, in whole or part, without refund of exhibitor's fees that in the opinion of Maryland REALTORS®, would be harmful or injurious to the participants.
- » The exhibitor understands that insurance coverage for personal injury and or property loss or damage remains the responsibility solely of the exhibitor. Maryland REALTORS® assumes no responsibility for property/damages or loss or physical injury due to fire, theft, or acts of nature.
- » In the event of fire or other circumstances beyond the control of Maryland REALTORS® that would cause the Conference to be canceled, the exhibitor will waive any claim for damages or compensation.
- » Exhibitor displays must stay within the confines of the space provided and not obstruct the view of adjacent booths.
- » Exhibitors may not permit other companies to use their space or any part thereof without written permission of Maryland REALTORS®. Any requests as such must be received in writing and sent to Angel.Brandt@mdrealtor.org.
- » Exhibitors must not mar or deface any portion/area of the premises. This includes the placement of nails, hooks, tacks, screws, or tape. on any surface. Any such violations shall result in the Exhibitor being responsible for all charges, as assessed by the host property. Any such charges are the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor.
- » No signs, advertisements, show bills, posters, cards, or other media will be attached to any portion of the facility, facility grounds, or adjacent areas.
- » No flammable, combustible, or explosive items, including firearms, of any type are permitted into the premises.
- » No confetti of any kind can be used in the Performing Arts Center.

This year's exhibit floor plan has been designed to provide maximum exposure for Exhibitors. All activities (except for CE and a handful of theatre-style events) will be held in the exhibit hall. The floor will be surrounded by fun and interactive booths which will build on the engagement between members and exhibitors.
